

This is your chance to lead rowing Germany to international gold. We are looking for a

Head Coach German Rowing Association

From March 1, 2025 and initially limited to December 31, 2028. Location: Germany

“Bullen 4er”, “Deutschland-Achter” – German rowing has a tradition of strength and success. To bring our athletes (back) to the top in rowing, we are looking for you as our new national head coach. You will have responsibility for planning and supervising the training of all national squad rowers including participation in the international competition calendar. Together with the board-member for sport, you will be responsible for managing all strategic processes in high-performance rowing as well as leading our large team of coaches with intellect and empathy. At the 2028 Olympics in Los Angeles, another name for Germany could be made: yours. When does it start? From March 1, 2025 – apply by January 24th, 2025!

RESPONSIBILITIES ...

- › You are responsible for the world ranking- and seasonal-analyses, season planning and the coordination of our teams.
- › You are responsible for monitoring and analysing the performance development.
- › You create framework training plans for each discipline and lead, encourage and challenge your division coaches.
- › You coordinate training and competition processes with the sports board and implement them within the squads.
- › You advise our division and squad coaches with your expertise.

REQUIREMENTS ...

- › Completed university degree, ideally in sports science/management or coaching.
- › Or an internationally comparable degree with professional experience.
- › Several years of management responsibility in (inter-)national association work.
- › Professional experience as a coach in high-performance rowing with international successes.
- › You can speak and write German well or are willing to learn quickly with our support.
- › You have team spirit and are a role model.

WHAT WE OFFER ...

- › The world's largest pool of rowing talent and an ambitious team of coaches.
- › The unique opportunity to lead a historic rowing nation back to the top of the world.
- › Short and quick coordination channels: you and your sports board decide.
- › Flexible working hours, 36 days of vacation, company car, laptop and cell phone.
- › A presidium and board team that wants the same thing as you: success!
